

THE BATHTUB SONG

Words and Music by Linda Arnold

I've been playing all day, ha ha
I'm so dirty it's true
I know my mother will say oh-oh
Now it's bath time for you

Then I scrub a dub dub
In the old bathtub
Scrub a dub dub through and through
Splash, splish, I'm a little fish
Swimming around in the tub
Rub a dub dub, rub a dub

I've been playing all day, ha ha
Paints and play dough and glue
When I climb into the tub, oh boy!
This is what I'll do

Scrub a dub everywhere
Shiny fingers and squeaky hair
Soapy-oap my head to toes
Blowing bubbles through my nose

I've been playing all day, ha ha
I'm so dirty it's true
I hope my mother will say, oh-oh
Now it's bath time for you
