

UNTIMELY CHILD

Words and Music by Linda Arnold

I'm taking my time it's true
But it's hard to decide
Just what I'm going to do
With this new life
Sleeping inside my skin
Untimely child
Will I let you win

Friends say my eyes look bright
But I feel in the darkness
Searching for some light
And what frightens me
Is that the promises I made
To strive for something
Will soon begin to fade

But I know my man
Will always be
By my side when I need him
And in all my dreams
I've always planned a family

Deep in my heart I know
That in spite of all my fears
I want this child to grow
Oh, I'm slow at change
I'm never ready it seems
But this time I'll take the chance
And bring to life my dreams
