

DREAMS & STILL SUMMER NIGHTS

Words and Music by Linda Arnold

Dreams and still Summer nights
By the warm firelight
Laughing with tears in our eyes
Telling tales of our lives
Lover, you make me wild
You're the man I love
Soon the father of my child

Dreams and still Summer nights
In the pale moonlight
Looking deep within you just to see
Who you might really be
Lover, you make me smile
There's a child inside you too
Every once in a while

Dreams and still Summer nights
In the soft candlelight
Listening for sounds inside of me
Of our first child to be
Lover, you set me free
Blow out the light
Let's dream tonight
Of this new life soon to be
Dreams and still Summer nights
