

READ A BOOK

Words and Music by Linda Arnold

If you like adventure, if you like to travel far
Your imagination can be your shooting star
You can climb a mountain
Or sail off to the moon
You can travel anywhere
In the quiet of your room

All you gotta do is read a book
Open up the cover and take a look
All you gotta do is read a book
Open up the cover and take a look

You can see the future
You can travel back in time
You can run from Dracula
Or hide from Frankenstein
You can meet the Wizard of Oz
Or fly with Peter Pan
You can be the hero
In your own wonderland

All you gotta do is read a book
Open up the cover and take a look
All you gotta do is read a book
Open up the cover and take a look

So, if you like adventure, if you like to travel far
Your imagination can be your shooting star
To pirate ships, jungle trips
Or a magic carpet ride
There's so many brand new friends
Waiting just inside

All you gotta do is read a book
Open up the cover and take a look
All you gotta do is read a book
Open up the cover and take a look

You can climb up Jack's beanstalk
Or run from Captain Hook
You can travel anywhere
In the pages of a book!
