

BUTTERFLY

Words and Music by Linda Arnold

Butterfly, butterfly
Spread your wings and wink your eye
Butterfly, butterfly
Spread your wings and wink your eye
Flying low, flying high
Like a rainbow in the sky
Velvet wings flutter by
Farewell little butterfly

Once there was a butterfly
Who had a broken wing
Instead of learning how to fly
She taught herself to sing
As her friends would all go dancing
High above the trees
Her gentle little melodies
Would flutter in the breeze

Butterfly, butterfly
Spread your wings and wink your eye
Butterfly, butterfly
Spread your wings and wink your eye
Flying low, flying high
Like a rainbow in the sky
Velvet wings flutter by
Farewell little butterfly

As that sweet butterfly sang her melody
All the other forest friends joined in harmony
So, she sang her music until one Summer's day
The spirit of that butterfly
Gently flew away

Butterfly, butterfly
Spread your wings and wink your eye
Butterfly, butterfly
Spread your wings and wink your eye
Flying low, flying high
Like a rainbow in the sky
When you sing your heart can fly
Sang the little butterfly
