

BROADWAY BANANA

Words and music by Linda Arnold

I'm a Broadway Banana
How I love to sing and dance
I'm looking for a lucky chance
To be in a show

Well, I'm ripe and ready to be a star
With my kind of talent, I'll go far
I've got such a peel
I always steal the show
Bo, Bo, Be, Do

I'm a Broadway Banana
(Broadway Banana)
How I love to sing and dance
(Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh)
I'm looking for a lucky chance
To be in a show

Well, I may look tough on the outside
But I'm sweet and mushy inside
So, Mr. Producer, don't squash me
Even bananas have pride

I'm a Broadway Banana
(Broadway Banana)
How I love to sing and dance
(Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh)
I'm looking for a lucky chance
To be in a show

Well, I was raised in the Bronx by a lemon and lime
That's why my flavor is so sublime
I've got such a peel
I always steal the show
Bo, Bo, Be, Do

I'm a Broadway Banana
(Broadway Banana)
How I love to sing and dance
(Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh)
I'm looking for a lucky chance
To be in a show

Well, you can take strawberries or cherries
Or even a lemon twist
Look high or low, one thing I know
You'll never find bananas with legs like this

I'm a Broadway Banana
(Broadway Banana)
How I love to sing and dance
(Ooh, ooh, ooh, ooh)
I'm looking for a lucky chance
To be in a show

And it's always such a great big hit
Each time I do the banana split
I'm a Broadway Banana
(Broadway Banana)
Looking for a Broadway show
Top Banana!
