

BIG FEET

Words and music by Linda Arnold

Well, I'm an ordinary kid in almost every way
I love to run, sing and dance
To roller skate and play
But when mother takes me shopping
For a brand-new pair of shoes
The size I'm wearing now is always
On the front-page news

Cause I've got giant, monstrous, unbelievable feet
Outrageous, humongous, totally KUNGABUNGUS!
KUNGABUNGUS!
Giant, monstrous, unbelievable feet!
Incredible, unforgettable, great big feet

When I was only one year old
My feet weren't big at all
They only stretched out of my crib
And curled around the hall
At five years old those funny feet
Would not fit in the tub
So down to the car wash I would go
To give my feet a scrub a dub dub

Cause I've got giant, monstrous, unbelievable feet
Outrageous, humongous, totally KUNGABUNGUS!
KUNGABUNGUS!
Giant, monstrous, unbelievable feet!
Incredible, unforgettable, great big feet

Yesterday I went to play on a soccer team
When the coach saw my feet
His eyes began to gleam
On my turn I kicked the ball
With all my heart and sole
It circled round the earth five times
And then it made the goal!

Cause I've got giant, monstrous, unbelievable feet
Outrageous, humongous, totally KUNGABUNGUS!
KUNGABUNGUS!
Giant, monstrous, unbelievable feet!
Incredible, unforgettable, great big feet

Incredible, unforgettable, KUNGABUNGUS feet!
