

COOL COYOTE

Words and music by Linda Arnold

Cool Coyote sneaking around
Stealing from the farmers without a sound
Until one day they said, "We're through Working alone to capture you."

You may be clever, you may be strong
You may be fast it's true
But now that they are working together
"We can be sneaky, too."
"Watch Out!"

Cool Coyote
It's time for you to run
You may be cool, but you're a fool
For two heads are better than one!

Cool Coyote sneaking around
Stealing from the farmers without a sound
Hey there, thief, better watch your back
Here come farmers Joe and Jack

Munching chickens and rabbits, too
That really isn't fair
Now there's a team after you
Coyote, you better beware
"Watch Out!"

Cool Coyote
It's time for you to run
You may be cool, but you're a fool
For two heads are better than one!

Cool Coyote
It's time for you to run
You may be clever, but not forever
For two heads are better than one

"Watch Out!"
