

CIRCUS POODLES

Words and music by Linda Arnold

Oodles and oodles of circus poodles
Jumping about the ring
Lovely Miss Kitty has trained them well
She's even taught them to sing
(Woof, woof!)

Oodles and oodles of circus poodles
Oh, what a sight to see
When they hear applause
They all wave their paws,
And wag their tails happily

(Woof, woof, arf, arf!)

Oodles and oodles of circus poodles
Dressed in ribbons and bows
Lovely Miss Kitty has trained them well
To dance on doggie tiptoes
(Woof, woof!)

Under the Big Top they love to perform
For the circus is their home
After the show, the doggies all know
Miss Kitty will give them a bone

(Woof, woof! Woof, woof!)

Oodles and oodles of circus poodles
Oh, what a sight to see
When they hear applause
They all wave their paws
And wag their tails happily
Wag their tails happily
Wag their tails happily
(Woof, woof!)
