

THERE'S A DINOSAUR KNOCKING

Words and Music by Linda Arnold

There's a dinosaur knocking at my door
Knocking one, two, three
There's a dinosaur knocking at my door
And he wants to play with me

"Knock, knock"
"Who's there?"
"Tyrone"
"Tyrone who?"
"Tyronasaurus Rex
And I'm here to play with you"

There's a dinosaur knocking at my door
Knocking one, two, three
There's a dinosaur knocking at my door
And he wants to play with me

Though mother went out to town for the day
She never said that dinosaurs
Weren't allow to play
So, I opened up the door
And I said, "Come in."
He wagged his tail
And he gave me a grin
Then he squeezed and he squeezed
'Til he came right through
With the door, the window
And the front wall too

There's a dinosaur knocking at my door
Knocking one, two, three
There's a dinosaur knocking at my door
And he wants to play with me

Well, he rubbed his tummy
And he said "Let's eat!"
I went into the kitchen to fix him up a treat
I opened up a jar of crunchy peanut butter
He ate the jar and all
And said "I think I'll have another!"

I turned around and found
The whole refrigerator gone
He looked at me and burped
And said, "Did I do something wrong?"

There's a dinosaur knocking at my door
Knocking one, two, three
There's a dinosaur knocking at my door
And he wants to play with me

Well, we started taking turns
Jumping on my parents' bed
He only had half a turn
Then the bed was dead
On the second jump
His head went through the roof
He blinked his eyes and said,
"Oops! I think I made a goof!"
Suddenly I saw my mother
Coming through the door
So, I said "Guess what? I've got a dinosaur!"
"Hi!"

There's a dinosaur knocking at my door
Knocking one, two, three
There's a dinosaur knocking at my door
And he wants to play with me

"Let's order some pizza!"
