

HIPPO HURRAY

Words and Music by Linda Arnold

(Hip, hip, hip, hip, hip, hurray
She's a hip hippopotamus who likes to play)

Well, have you heard of sweet Harmony
The hippest little hippo that there ever could be
She's got a style and it's all her own
She loves to swim around and play the saxophone

She's a hip, hip, hippopotamus
From the top down to the bottomest
She's a hip, hip, hippopotamus

It wasn't easy to play while she'd float
Sometimes she'd just blow bubbles instead of a note
But every morning she'd practice her scales
Now everybody listens while Harmony wails

She's a hip, hip, hippopotamus
From the top down to the bottomest
She's a hip, hip, hippopotamus

(Hip, hip, hip, hip, hip, hurray
She's a hip hippopotamus who likes to play)
She's a hip hippopotamus who likes to play

So if you're looking for a style of your own
Remember sweet Harmony's saxophone
Life is a river, a magical stream
Where each of us learns to live our own dream

She's a hip, hip, hippopotamus
From the top down to the bottomest
She's a hip, hip, hippopotamus

(Hip, hip, hip, hip, hip, hurray
She's a hip, hippopotamus who likes to play)
She's a hip, hippopotamus who likes to play

Hip, hip, she's a hip hippopotamus
Hip, hip, from the top to the bottomest
Hip, hip, she's a hip hippopotamus
Hip, hip, from the top to the bottomest

She's a hip, hippopotamus who likes to play
