

ROCKIN' AT THE ZOO

Words and Music by Linda Arnold

There's a little zoo near the edge of town
(Zoo, zoo, city zoo)
The animals there, they love to get down
(Zoo, zoo, city zoo)
Every day around 6 o'clock
That old city zoo starts to rock
The animals there give it all they've got
Down at the city zoo

Well, Mr. Lion he plays the bass
And on the drums Mr. Monkey's an ace
Tommy Tiger plays a mean guitar
Polly Penguin is the keyboard star
Miss Giraffe she sings so hot
And Albert Alligator gives it all he's got

Down at the city zoo
Where the animals play
Down at the city zoo
They'll be rocking all day
Down at the city zoo, hear the music ring
A mile away you can hear them sing

Well, Mrs. Hippopotamus plays the saxophone
And Edward Elephant makes the trumpets moan
Mr. Duck he sings so sweet
And Katy Kangaroo always taps to the beat
Peter Polar Bear, he always starts popping
Pretty soon the place is rockin'

At the city zoo
Where the animals play
Down at the city zoo
They'll be rocking all day
Down at the city zoo, hear the music ring
A mile away you can hear them sing

Down at the zoo, zoo, city zoo
Down at the zoo, zoo, city zoo
Down at the zoo, zoo, city zoo
A mile away you can hear them sing

Down at the zoo, zoo, city zoo
Down at the zoo, zoo, city zoo
Down at the zoo, zoo, city zoo
A mile away you can hear them sing
