

THERE'S A LOT OF MAGIC IN TEARS

Words and Music by Linda Arnold

There's a lot of magic in tears, so don't be afraid to cry
If you have a wish, let your tears give it wings to fly

There's a lot of magic in tears, your heart will tell you so
So, if you feel you need to cry, just let go

Tears can calm you when you're feeling mad
Tears can help you wash away the sad
And sometimes tears come bubbling up
When you're feeling glad

There's a lot of magic in tears, so don't be afraid to cry
If you have a wish, let your tears give it wings to fly

There's no need for you to try and hide
The tears that come from down deep inside
For every real tear has a way
Of brightening up your day

There's a lot of magic in tears, your heart will tell you so
If you feel you need to cry, just let go

So, if you have a special wish
You want to make come true
Just be sure that when you wish
Your heart is wishing too

There's a lot of magic in tears
Oooh, oooh, oooh
